

We all hold different notions of what we wish to learn and what insights we have to impart.

By sharing our interests we can start a conversation that enables us not only to learn from each other, but also to make meaningful connections over the things that we are passionate about.

This wall invites you to a process of action and dialogue, leading up to a gathering at the end of the week.

We hope that you will join us in creating an experience, a Picnic, where each of us leaves with more perspectives (and possibly friends) than we arrived with.

Ultimately we will each shape the result, as much as being shaped by the experience itself.
